

Based on the plot, we can see that with the eigen values increase, the cumulative variance converged to 1 at around 55 eigen values. Before 50 eigen values, the larger the lambda is, the lower cumulative variance explained. We value more about the recent data by setting lambda to larger number. Vice Versa. Therefore, the early data explained more than latest data.